18th February 2011

Dear Members,

GUJARATI GAMES CARNIVAL 2011 MALACCA 11th, 12th & 13th March 2011

The Gujarati Bi-Annual Carnival is set to begin on the 11th March 2011. All preparations for the games had started since October 2010 and now we are at the final stage of ensuring we maintain our status as the Overall Champions.

Gujarati Association Wilayah Persekutuan & Selangor are the defending champions for senior/junior Football, Carom, Badminton, Netball & Table Tennis. This year we hope to retain all the above and add the trophies for Chess and Football.

The coordinators have been putting all their effort to ensure we are fully prepared to meet the challenges provided by the other three participants namely Malacca, Singapore and Penang.

“We will give our best” that is the entire GAWPS teams' commitment.

What are the objectives of the Gujarati Games Carnival??

- Fostering friendship between Gujaratis all over Malaysia & Singapore.
- Enhancing the values of sportsmanship and healthy living.
- Creating a forum to discuss issues relating to Gujaratis eg. Cultural, religion & language.
- Promoting unity between all Gujaratis to allow prospects of business, work, education & marriage.
- Creating a network over Malaysia among the Gujaratis where we can benefit from the contacts of all Malaysian and Singaporean businessmen & professionals.

Thus the Carnival is not only about games, it has tremendous other benefits and values.
